Portrait of Man Worried About His Future

MAYBE she's right. Maybe I am losing a few hair, worries Ed Jackson, 3643 Donnell Road.

FUNNY. I never noticed it before. It sure is a lot thinner than when I was a kid in Lethbridge.

HOLY SMOKE! What will the girl friends think if she ever runs her fingers through these strands?

TD NEVER have thought it would come to this. Better I should do something about it now.

THEY SAY this stuff will do the trick. Heck, in a month or so I'll be a ladies' man again.

OH, WELL. I'm not as young as I used to be. Maybe she won't think I'm so bad after all.

Sunday Sale Test Case Brings Fine

Lord's Day Act Is Upheld By Magistrate's Ruling
The Lord's Day Act was invoked yesterday in judgment on the Sunday sale of an 80-cent bag of nuts in the city of Edmonton.

Charged with breach of the act for sale of the nuts on Sunday, March 19, was Dawn St. Andre, former clerk at The Nut House Ltd., on 101 street. The management accepted responsibility.

In the six-page written judgment, handed down by Police Magistrate S. G. Main, K.C., yesterday, she was fined $25 and costs.

Sentence of 15 days imprisonment was the option to payment of the fine.

The magistrate made his finding after almost a week's deliberation on what Acting news promoter Kenneth Crockett called a "test case" on Sunday sales in the city. It was first heard in police court April 12.

PLANNING APPEAL
Defense counsel for the company, Abe W. Miller, K.C., said today he was planning an appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court.

In effect, the magistrate's ruling means that all Sunday sales in Edmonton are held to come under the provisions of the federal Lord's Day Act.

The federal statute may be superseded by provincial or municipal legislation, the prosecutor pointed out at the original trial, "but no such legislation is in effect."

SPOTLIGHT ALL SALES
If upheld as a possible appeal court hearing the judgment could throw a spotlight on all Sunday retailing in the city.

By the end of the first day they planned The Bulletin and begged them to kill the ad. They were swamped with letters.

Court Rules Bone's Story Admissible
Evidence of Gordon Bone, the crown's key witness against alleged murderer Joseph Gilbert, was ruled admissible in Supreme Court today.

Bone, Gilbert's part-time employee, said he held conversations with Gilbert on three separate occasions as to Gilbert's part in the road-house strangling of Sam Ken last Oct. 8.

Defense counsel Alex Dubinsky fought strongly to have Bone's evidence as to each conversation, barred as "inadmissible."

JURY SENT OUT
Three times, the jury was directed out of the court room while Mr. Justice McRide, presiding, W. J. Shortt and counsel Dubinsky held a trial within a trial.

Mr. Dubinsky claimed that Bone, as the employee of Gilbert, was a person in authority over him and that the statements Gilbert made to him were not voluntary and not admissible.

"The position is not quite the same as regards Israel," Davies replied, "and we have treaty obligations towards Egypt, Iraq and Jordan."

Sydney Silverman, Labor, then demanded:

Shopkeepers Hail Warm Weather With Pleasure

By Jack DeLong
Bulletin Staff Writer

Shopkeepers are happy to see the sun shining. Edmonton's retail trade got off to a slow start this spring because of the weather.

This was the conclusion reached following a survey by the Bulletin of leading city merchants.

The severe winter, followed by a wet, cold spell in recent weeks, was blamed largely for sales dropping slightly below the early months of last year.

Rising food and rent costs, with fluctuating prices of farm commodities, were also seen as factors in the slowdown of retail buying experienced here to date.

ACTED AS BRAKE

Drop in prices of some farm produce has acted as a brake on sale of farm implements, one leading dealer said.

By and large, however, business is better than last year. Sales in Edmonton to be pretty close to the record-breaking year of 1949.

The head of one large department store predicted that 1950 would be a new record established by his firm.

Wine Sale Costs Man $300 Fine

A man who admitted making a living selling wine illegally was fined $300 and costs in Edmonton court today.

Alternative to the fine was three months imprisonment.

Det. Ernest Nielsen testified Ernest Fine, no address given, was arrested early Sunday morning when he was observed selling a bottle of wine to two men.

The liquor was confiscated by a constable on the spot. Price in court was $2.

Fine's liquor permit allowed many purchases of wine, the detective said.

PAID FINE

Fine paid $10 and costs with option of 15 days in jail were taken when he staged a wrangling bout on a Beverly bus April 9.

The pair, Otto Messerschmidt and Arthur Glenn, pleaded guilty to a charge of causing a disturbance in a public place.

Bus driver Donald Douglas, 11844 street, told the court he stopped the pair twice and requested the pair to stop fighting "or get out."

He said the men refused to heed him and continued "foisting and humping other passengers" during a tussle that lasted until bus came to end of the route.

Farmers are entitled to use the 1949 rates for depreciation in preparing their 1949 income tax returns, officials of the Alberta Federation of Agriculture announced today.

Farmers To Seek Increased Prices

Farm Union Likely To Protest Final Payments For Wheat

Farmers Union of Alberta will press for a final payment of $2 a bushel on wheat sold previously under the British wheat agreement.

Board of directors of the FUA is meeting in Regina today and Thursday to discuss action on payments in view of the recent Ottawa announcement placing the initial payment on 1950 wheat at $1.40 per bushel.

The farmers have felt that the pegged price of wheat (below world market prices during the war and since) has resulted in liquidation of millers and distillers.

Two dollars a bushel for the wheat sold in the years 1945-46, 1946-47, 1947-48, 1948-49, and 1949-50, would compensate for that discrepancy, the FUA directors believe.

At present rates, it is estimated that the final payment on wartime wheat will bring the total figure to $1.80 per bushel.

The FUA feels this to be totally inadequate in the light of farmers' contribution to having the price line during the war.

The FUA executive will likely lay plans for sending a delegation to Ottawa, along with Saskatchewan farmers, to make formal request for an increased final payment on wartime wheat.

Current membership drive reports and annual dinner conventions will also be discussed by the executive.

High Prices Don't Deter Edmontonians

Most people say it's all-time high but Edmontonians are still eating the best they can get.

Sales of cheaper "commercial" goods have only increased slightly since most prices started to soar two months ago, packers and leading retailers said today.

"Customers complain about the prices," one leading independent butcher said, "but they still buy the top grades even though they have to pay close to 90 cents a pound for a 3.50 steak."

"People in Edmonton are more money these days," he concluded. "A buy a steak could put prices back into a line, another leading retailer stated, but there is no evidence of this happening."

"If the public would not out buying beef for 60 cents, the price would fall fast enough," he said. "They won't though."

Election Act Under Fire In Commons

OTTAWA, April 19.—(CP)—Suggestions for electoral reform came before the Commons today as the government moved to set up a special house committee to study proposals for changes to the Dominion Elections Act.

John Diefenbaker revived a call for a thorough investigation of the merits of the single transferable vote, used provincially in Manitoba, and suggested the committee call experts to testify on the system.

Under the single transferable vote system, the voter indicates his choice of candidates on the ballot as first, second, third and so on. If no candidate has a clear majority on the first count of ballots, returning officers take the other choices into account until a majority candidate emerges.

NOW RUSSIA WANTS THE DARDANELLES

MOSCOW, April 19.—(UPI)—Russia's historic campaign for free passage through the gateway to the Black Sea was reopened today with a new demand for revision of controls over the Dardanelles.

The navy ministry organ Red Fleet said the Montreux Convention, giving Turkey control over the strategic straits between the Black and Mediterranean Seas, had ceased to satisfy the interests of the Black Sea powers.

"Turkey's rulers have sold the independence of their country to American imperialists," Red Fleet said.

No Monetary Appreciation For Singers

By IVERS KELLY
Bulletin Staff Writer

Some days you can't make a nickel. That's the case most days if you're a singer in Alberta. "People expect you to sing for nothing," said James Lamond, who was awarded a prize at the Edmonton Musical Festival here as a prominent tenor but who has no money to show for it.

EASTERN LESSONS

"People here don't realize you have to spend money on music," said Lamond, who is now in Edmonton on a tour of the province. "I have to go to the States to get my music. A few weeks ago I was in the States for a month and I had to spend $400 on music."

He wants to be a concert singer but he is in a bind. He has no money to go to the States. "A concert singer won't make a dime here," he remarked. "You have to go to the States to get your money. I have to go to the States to get my money. I have to go to the States to get my money."

He has been in Alberta for a month and he has not made a dime. "I have to go to the States to get my money. I have to go to the States to get my money. I have to go to the States to get my money."

North Saskatchewan Navigation Nonsense

NAVIGATION ON THE North Saskatchewan River opened today when Capt. Kipper Herring eased the Leam Mary to dock at Low Level Bridge. Capt. Herring said it was his last voyage. He said he expected his retirement papers to come as soon as the owners found out where he had put the vessel. He said he had no plans for the future but expected to live somewhere along the North Saskatchewan because never before had he seen a river with so many bars on it. He wasn't sure just how he got to Edmonton because he had been in a fog since leaving Fort Saskatchewan. This was nothing new for him, however, because he had been at sea for most of his life, anyway.

Graduating Class Solos To Alberta Church Work on the TOWN...

By JACK DELONG

The 1950 graduating class at St. Stephen's College is a tall young man with brown wavy hair and an ambition to become a minister.

Third member of the United Church's theological training college to graduate since the war, William Archer, 26, 1054-47 street, proved himself a worthy successor to the college's first graduate, a minister.

With that, he left his home in Vancouver and came to Edmonton to begin his three-year theological course.

Spring Bride Buys Unfinished Furniture

By Bea Thrifty

'Tis time for grass to be greening on the hill . . . and time for spring brides to be considering their buying program for the season.

A trousseau takes time, energy, imagination and a lot of dollars . . . but so does household furnishing.

And I had more fun than a barrel of monkeys yesterday, rushing hither, thither and yon with a blushing bride-elect on a spending spree.

But I must say the gal has sense . . . isn't a spendthrift and isn't one who lays like so many modern young ones.

I say this because she marched determinedly into the unfinished furniture section of a local store and proceeded to outline her plan of attack.

She liked her young man into whiles away his evenings smoothing, varnishing, painting this inexpensive, adaptable furniture.

An elbow-high corner shelf sold for $7.95 and she picked the handsome painted one. And she bought the natural oak, four-drawer chest for $12.95.

And of course she settled on a pair of drawers, and quite this. But she was crafty as can be by buying separate units.

This way the double drawers may be used together or separated for furniture shifting. Simple units sell at $16.95 and $17.95 . . . according to type of knobs or drawers.

The double efforts are going at prices ranging from $2.50 to $2.95 . . . depending on design of drawers, width of top and other features.

Now their tiny little suite doesn't really have enough kitchen cupboard corner as my best friend's young friend would like. So she's looking for an unframed unit complete with four drawers on one side and double cupboards on the other.

Cupboards open to reveal two deep, roomy shelves to store any number of interesting things. She plans to cover the top with a good piece of remnant linoleum and use it for working surface.

Printed a fresh white it will be spanking bright. But would create a keep-clean problem. Sprayed and varnished in the natural finish, it would be straight up, practical and oh-so-easy to keep clean of smudgy finger-prints.

A 35-Year-Old Woman Can Decide on Mate for Self

It is a common mistake to think that a woman of 35 is too old to marry. In fact, she is just the right age to make a choice for herself.

At this age, a woman has had enough experience to know what she wants in a mate. She is no longer a child, and she is not a widow.

She is a woman, and she has the right to choose her own mate. She is not too old, and she is not too young.

A REAL THRILL—It's a great thrill to shop for a size 16 instead of a 20 or larger.

WHY GROW OLD

Kid Ourselves If We Don't Care How We Look

By Josephine Lowman

A reader writes: "Greater joy hath no woman than the one who goes shopping and asks for a size 16 instead of a size 20 or larger."

Too often women talk themselves into the idea that they don't really care about how they look. There are some few exceptions, I guess; women who are as on fire with life as they actually forget how they look. When there is a let-down in eagerness for living, when boredom spreads its dull, grey tentacles over the body, when physical rejuvenation usually fails.

Today, when we girls take our little spins and let the truth be told, we do discover the truth for ourselves. How much has your personality and the things you have done been affected by the way you look? Has everything been changed, or only a little? A big stomach, rolls over the hips, sagging breasts, hunched back, a drooping jaw, lines in the face, a double chin, or any other physical defect about you, a feeling of looking up at these made you self-conscious and therefore changed your natural personality?

Looking the best you can and seeing good hands in hand. If you feel that you are not important to anyone, the woman who is not important to anyone, you are likely to let your appearance become much less attractive than it could be. We women should recognize this.

Child Should Learn To Stop Playing Host

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

It doesn't seem necessary, even in the interest of being a good hostess, to let children exceed their rights as guests. When a child's acts annoy the hostess that she cannot think kindly of him, it is well for her to do something concrete to end them.

Mrs. J. W. says she lives in a neighbourhood where there are about 13 children, four of them the age of her son. "My boy is a good-hearted child and most of these children haven't too much to play with. Our boy has practically everything, a bicycle, a record player, and all kinds of toys."

These boys come here and play until they are tired and then go off and play without him. They whisper about him and won't let him hear what they say. They get his football and then won't let him play with it. They bribe him to let him have it and then they ride and ride and when he asks for his turn they say "Just come over."

They get him to bring out all his toys and then they run away and he has to carry them in by himself. They are seven years old and they come and play here every afternoon and the house is a wreck.

My boy always offers them something to eat and they are so multiplied by four there is little left. They come in the house one time when I was gone and ate up a loaf of bread, a pound of meat, a box of marshmallows and some peanuts. They told the boy they wanted it and he gave it food to them. He would like to work this summer so that he can buy himself a bicycle and give it to one of the other boys and then they can be selfish and he tells me he is supposed to be good to company.

What shall I say? He is supposed to be hospitable and unselfish but not slavish in his devotion to these boys' interests.

You should explain to the boys that each boy has to be shared and turn them in its use (your boy's included).

You may put aside any food the boys can have for a treat and instruct your boy to touch no other. Our little, No. 57, "Children's Quarrel," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Big Training Plan For Two Forces

Peacetime Training Program For Reserves Is Biggest Yet

By John E. Bird
Special To The Bulletin

OTTAWA, April 10. — (UPI) — The most extensive peacetime training program for navy and air force reserve defence officials.

The navy said it expected to train about 250 reserve personnel this year on Atlantic and Pacific coasts, 10 per cent more than last year. The air force said it would train 4,000 reserve personnel during the year, 10 per cent more than last year. The navy said it would train 2,000 reserve personnel during the year, 10 per cent more than last year.

Spoken for by both services said the summer's reserve navy and air force preparedness program would be the largest operations of their kind in history.

NAVAL PROGRAM
Naval reserve training program will be centered at HMCS Stadacona, Halifax, and HMCS Sable, Esquimaux, B.C., from early May to early September. Reserves will take short courses and also will take trips of about two weeks duration. In addition, a number of reserve naval officers will take naval flying courses at the RCN station at Dartmouth, N.S.

The navy will use five frigates in reserve training program, 12 frigates and six destroyers on the West Coast, and six destroyers on the Atlantic, and the cruiser Ontario and destroyers Cayuga and Albatross on the Pacific, also will be used to a limited extent.

The 2500 naval reserves included 900 university naval training cadets, and Canadian Service college cadets. These cadets will receive both shore and sea training this summer.

AIR FORCE PROGRAM
The air force's reserve program will be split into ground and air training, with the bulk of the training from air cadets and air force reserve squadrons will be trained at their summer camps.

A camp will be maintained at Gimli, Man., for Squadron 402, Wing 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000.

POLICE AGAIN ARE MEN IN DENVER

DENVER, Colorado, April 10. — (UPI) — The massacre in the Fraser River, 15 men were killed while it lasted. The cops got all dolled up like women in an effort to nab men who bother women on Denver streets.

But the campaign ended after an 18-year-old soldier named George Emerson was arrested for peeping around. He picked one of the cops. Sergeant Clifford Stanley was called in because, says Stanley, "you can't imagine the risk these policemen are being put to."

The nine universities include York of Toronto, Montreal, McGill, Queen's, Western, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia.

This summer about 70 pilots, 30 navigators and 30 radio officers will receive actual flying training at RCAP stations.

Aircrew training will be given to about 100 RCAP cadets from Royal Roads, B.C., and the Royal Military College, Kingston, Ont. About 300 air force veterans attending universities will attend various camps for summer employment under the RCAP plan.

The House of Commons Tuesday set May 4 as the date for an election to fill a parliamentary vacancy in Scotland's Highlands and Sperrin borough district. The seat was held for the Labour party in the Feb. 21 general election by F. J. Cobb, who died last month. He had a majority of 2,132 over William E. Wootton, National Liberal.

Reported Warning Irks Individual Fishermen

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 10. — (UPI) — British Columbia's 2,000 fishermen who man the gillnet fleet in the Fraser River are up in arms over the possibility of a government move to cut them from their traditional fishing grounds.

Fishermen, who man the colorful salmon gillnetters for salmon in the Fraser River, have been stirred up by a group of six semi-independent fishermen who claim that the government is planning to hold in the Fraser River a special meeting of the Board of Fisheries. The Board of Fisheries is the body that regulates the salmon fishery and the government is expected to discuss the matter further.

Halifax In Midst Of Building Boom
ST. JOHN'S, N.B., April 10. — (UPI) — Possibility of having the annual Dominion Drama Festival held in Saint John next spring was discussed today at a special meeting of the Board of Fisheries. The Board of Fisheries is the body that regulates the salmon fishery and the government is expected to discuss the matter further.

Interview Recalled
"The said it was (Mayhew's) personal opinion that he should be operated inside the month of the Fraser," Holley said. "When we present the Fisheries minister on this point, he will probably take more than two years to complete. It will include many phases of construction, from school and nurses' residences to a new federal building and a $200,000 addition to the Fisheries Experimental Station."

TWINS LORNA and Linda Jamison, 6117-112 avenue, were having time of lives with first ice-cream when photographer Eric Bland happened by. Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Spence Jamison, twins, who will be one year old next month, took to cold confection with great gusto. Of course mother had washing job on hands when operation ice cream was over.

Farm Prices Stability Plan Being Worked Out

KINGSTON, Ont., April 10. — (UPI) — Agriculture Minister J. G. Gardiner said Tuesday night a new plan was being worked out to bring stability to Canadian farm prices.

The agriculture minister, addressing a meeting of the Kingston Rotary Club on Farmers' Night, recalled that Canadian farmers were asked to accept prices by the world for their products during the war, with the promise of higher prices after hostilities were fulfilled.

"The answer to that question will be worked out in due course," he said. "When it has been fulfilled we intend that a plan will have been worked out which will remove the weakness of the free export system without destroying its advantages."

Gardiner explained that in the case of flour, the government had set a floor price of 38 cents a pound in order to stabilize prices throughout the year. The plan had cost taxpayers about one quarter of a cent per pound on the total of $72,000,000 hands handled.

In the case of eggs, the government had inaugurated a plan which might not cost the taxpayer anything, but gave producers a guarantee of 26 cents per dozen "a stop loss price."

We believe that out of these two experiments we will be able to evolve a method of marketing which can function under private enterprise with the minimum of government interference," he said. "Our greatest concern at the moment is that our production be at a level which will take care of our possible markets."

Trade Wanted By Philipines

VANCOUVER, April 10. — (UPI) — The Philipines would like greater trade with Canada, Pedro Ramirez, Philipine consul in Seattle, said here.

"We buy a great deal of flour and plywood from Canada and we would like to buy more goods essential to our rehabilitation," he said.

"But in order to buy we must sell. Copra—used in soap making—and hemp, log and lumber are our major export products," he said. Mr. Ramirez is here attending the Pacific Northwest Trade Association conference.

Air Strip Mud Stops Flights

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., April 10. — (UPI) — Soggy mud over air strips has forced both the Saskatchewan Government Airways and the Canadian Pacific Airlines to suspend operations from the Prince Albert airport.

CIPA officials said all regular flights on daily schedules have been cancelled "for a week to 10 days." Pilots had reported the "soft" landings on the mud-coated field and service was immediately put on a day-to-day basis.

Postponement of service took effect during the week-end.

Navigational Flights Start Deep Into Arctic

By A. R. Garrett
WHITEHORSE, Y.T., April 10. — (UPI) — The RCAP Tuesday launched a series of long-distance navigational flights deep into the Arctic to provide practical experience for navigators in operational flying over the roof of the world.

Flights into the strategic polar area are being made in two stages. The first stage will be the Whitehorse air base, 1,100 miles northwest of Edmonton. Some trips will carry crews to the rim of the polar ice cap. If weather permits, one flight may go over the North Pole.

Planes are from the RCAP's Air Navigation School at Summerside, P.E.I., and the operation is the climax of an intensive 30-week course for eight men, directed by Sgt. L. W. G. Lippie of Toronto.

WIDE RANGE
Flying as far East as Greenland, the planes will cover an estimated 20,000 miles before returning to their home base at Summerside, via Frobisher Inlet, Delta Bay and Labrador.

Besides giving practical training, the flights will be used to test new navigational instruments. Instruments will be used to determine the position of the planes by celestial navigation.

Two people acceptances never before navigated by the RCAP. They must accept readiness to be taken from inside an aircraft and eliminate the need for fragile and speed-reducing instruments. The planes will be used to test new navigational instruments. Instruments will be used to determine the position of the planes by celestial navigation.

By NORMAN M. MACLEOD
OTTAWA, April 10. — (UPI) — Federal Progressive Conservatives started winding up their annual convention today with vigorous demands for an early Empire trade pact and for more intensive development of Canada's resources.

The convention policy committee voted strong support for the shrinking of Canada's markets abroad, and giving competition to workers in the home market by goods from countries with devalued currencies and lowered wage standards.

Actual texts of the various resolutions were kept secret until the final meeting of convention delegates in the afternoon. The party also passed resolutions to support the party executive to step up the party's nationwide organization and to set up a party executive to step up the party's nationwide organization and to set up a party executive to step up the party's nationwide organization.

TRIPLETS FLY ACROSS CANADA WITH MOTHER

VANCOUVER, April 10. — (UPI) — What is believed to be the first set of triplets to ever fly across Canada boarded a Trans-Canada plane in Vancouver last night for a trans-continental trip to New York.

Mrs. J. Martin, her six-month-old triplets and her mother, Mrs. J. Martin, flew to New York where her parents live. Her husband has been attending University of British Columbia at Vancouver.

Mrs. Martin and her triplets left Vancouver at 9:35 PM last night and will arrive in New York at 4:00 p.m. today.

"The answer to that question will be worked out in due course," he said. "When it has been fulfilled we intend that a plan will have been worked out which will remove the weakness of the free export system without destroying its advantages."

Gardiner explained that in the case of flour, the government had set a floor price of 38 cents a pound in order to stabilize prices throughout the year. The plan had cost taxpayers about one quarter of a cent per pound on the total of $72,000,000 hands handled.

Housing Lab Under Way At Saskatoon

OTTAWA, April 10. — (UPI) — Trade Minister Howe indicated Tuesday that Canada's study of the effects of extreme winter temperatures, linked with development of the North, is being expanded to housing.

Moving in the Commons for establishment of a committee to study activities of the National Research Council, he said its housing research division is building a "large laboratory facility" in Ottawa for testing whole sections of buildings under "severe cold weather" conditions.

He did not elaborate. Mr. Howe said the housing division will test the reaction of the government's Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, he said, to postpone long-term studies because of the boom in construction. There aren't enough people available for staff requirements.

However, a regional study was being developed at Saskatoon in line with private housing problem and the Ottawa development study would study weather problems.

Progressive Conservatives Entering Resolutions Stage
By NORMAN M. MACLEOD
OTTAWA, April 10. — (UPI) — Federal Progressive Conservatives started winding up their annual convention today with vigorous demands for an early Empire trade pact and for more intensive development of Canada's resources.

The convention policy committee voted strong support for the shrinking of Canada's markets abroad, and giving competition to workers in the home market by goods from countries with devalued currencies and lowered wage standards.

Actual texts of the various resolutions were kept secret until the final meeting of convention delegates in the afternoon. The party also passed resolutions to support the party executive to step up the party's nationwide organization and to set up a party executive to step up the party's nationwide organization.
